

Jalen Shin

Creative and detail-oriented student at NYU, with a strong foundation in business and a passion for blending art and technology. Seeking to leverage technical skills and artistic sensibility to create, innovative and interactive digital products/experiences.

123 4th Street,
New York City, NY 10003
(123) 456-7890
ds6374@nyu.edu

EDUCATION

New York University, New York— B.F.A in Tisch School of Arts

September 2020 - Present

EXPERIENCE

Bucheon Film Festival, South Korea— Creative Associate

August 2022 - August 2023

Aided in the creation of multimedia installations, including coding interactive elements with Processing.

Coordinated with artists and technicians to ensure the smooth setup and operation of exhibition pieces.

Metanet, South Korea— Digital Marketing Intern

January 2022 - June 2022

Built Marketing plan for software applications.

Collaborated with cross-functional teams to define and implement innovative solutions focusing on usability and design.

GXXD, South Korea— A&R/ Producer

2019 - 2022

Assisted in the production of album/ tracks for emerging artists, contributing to arrangement ideas and overseeing recording sessions.

Coordinated with artists and management to schedule studio time efficiently and ensure project deadlines were met.

Compiled and analyzed listener feedback from various streaming platforms to advise artists on potential areas for musical improvement.

SKILLS

Digital Business Skills -
Sales & Marketing

Extensive Communication
Skills & Leadership

Creative Web development
(HTML/CSS, Javascript)

Skilled in digital art software
(Adobe Creative Suite)

LANGUAGES

English, Korean